In Depth Look At Judgement

Defining Judgement

Defining judgement may help to understand how judgement is taken into consideration looking at the related scriptures.

Judgement is nothing more then making decisions in determining good or bad, right or wrong for a particular thought or action.

Judgement does not necessarily lead to a specific action or choice of alternatives.

Judgement often applies a degree of authority, expertise, or a formal process, whereas "decision" is a more general term for making a choice.

As an individual, the focus on self-judgement is forming an opinion, evaluation, or assessment after considering the information. A personal decision in determining value, facts, or merit.

Taking the above information and apply it to Deu 32:4.

Deu 32:4
He is the Rock, his work is perfect: for all his ways are judgment: a God of truth and without iniquity, just and right is he.

ALL HIS WAYS are judgement. That would also mean your ways are your judgement because you are of God.

Since all ways of God are judgement, look at judgement as being a path that you believe to be correct in accordance to your heart because you are one of his ways.

1Co 5:3
For I verily, as absent in body, but present in spirit, have judged already, as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed,

Self Judgement

2Co 13:5
Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, how that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates?

Reprobates in the Greek;
G96 ἀδόκιμος From G1 (as a negative particle) and G1384; unapproved, that is, rejected; by implication worthless (literally or morally) G1384 δόκιμος From G1380; properly acceptable (current after assayal), that is, approved.

1Co 11:31
For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.

(See Also; 1Co 11:28, Gal 6:4)

Rom 14:13
Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that no man put a stumblingblock or an occasion to fall in his brother's way.

Self judgement is a built in mechanism to keep from making errors and is a matter of choice, to freely choose. Your main decision is either the path on the left, or the path on the right.
The worldly way would be to blame someone else in a matter other than one's own self. To some, Satan is the main blame. The problem with that you are your own satan. You alone are responsible for your own thoughts and actions. Your not going to do something you don't love. Than ask yourself is this my true passion? If not, why are you not following your true passion? If you don't love it, why are you doing it?
Excuses from within yourself. How far will that fly when your only fooling yourself.
How do excuses serve your purpose?
If your having to justify something from your sub-conscience, it means your not in alignment with your true self. An excuse to do something you really don't want to do for whatever reason or reasons.

Judging Others

Mat 7:1-2 Judge not, that ye be not judged. For with what judgment ye judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again.

Rom 14:10 But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ.

James 4:11 Speak not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge.

Rom 2:1 Therefore thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest: for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest doest the same things.

Rom 14:4 Who art thou that judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth. Yea, he shall be holden up: for God is able to make him stand.

The statement "God is able to make him stand", means judgement is a lack of faith and trust in God.

God and Jesus Judge?

Rom 2:3 And thinkest thou this, O man, that judgest them which do such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the judgment of God?

But wait!

John 5:22 For the Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgment unto the Son:

John 12:47 And if any man hear my words, and believe not, I judge him not: for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world.

All judgement falls unto the son? We see in the same book of John, Jesus himself states he does not judge.

John 8:15 Ye judge after the flesh; I judge no man.

Luke 12:14 And he said unto him, Man, who made me a judge or a divider over you?

Man made Jesus a judge.
